

How HIV/AIDS Surveillance Data Are Collected

- Passive reporting combinations of health care practitioners, hospitals, clinics and laboratories report cases of HIV/AIDS to state and local health departments
- Active reporting
state and local health department surveillance personnel collect information by contacting health care practitioners and reviewing medical records in hospitals and clinics